MEET YOUR TRAINER

Jared Bell has more than two decades of experience in video production, media and visual communication. He has worked alongside not-for-profits, churches, community organisations and small businesses, helping teams create better content with the people, equipment and budgets they already have.

His training is practical, approachable and designed to give participants skills they can use straight away.

FLEXIBLE TRAINING OPTIONS

TRAINING IS AVAILABLE IN THE FORMAT THAT BEST SUITS YOUR TEAM.

Half Day Workshops

Ideal for exploring a focused topic or introducing your team to a new skill. A practical option for organisations with limited time or a specific training need.

Full Day Intensive

Explore one or more topics in greater depth through teaching, demonstrations and practical activities. Your team will gain hands-on experience, ask questions and apply what they learn throughout the day.

Online Training

Interactive training delivered remotely, making it easy for churches anywhere in Australia to access practical, high quality training without travel costs.

Flexible Delivery

Courses can be delivered over multiple days or weeks to fit your team's schedule. Please note that additional travel and associated costs may apply where training is spread across multiple sessions.

EVERY TRAINING SESSION CAN BE TAILORED TO YOUR TEAM'S EXPERIENCE, EQUIPMENT AND COMMUNICATION GOALS.
